Subject: Filing of Immovable/Movable Property Return by officers/officials.

Property returns are also a good tool to detect the source of funding of the assets of the officials and to find out whether these have been acquired through legal means. Timely filing of property return by officers/officials is one of the mandatory requirement under Conduct Rules.

It has been observed that some officers/officials are yet to file their Annual Immovable/Movable Property Return (AIPR/AMPR) for previous year i.e. 2019 while last date was 31.01.2020 but 100% compliance is yet to be secured in this regard.

2. The CVC, vide its letter No. 020/VGL/023/466958 dated 23.11.2020, has expressed its deep concern at such a prolonged delay in filing AIPR/AMPR by saying that, appropriate disciplinary action may be initiated against those officers/officials who have not filed it yet.

3. This is issued with the approval of CVO Prasar Bharati.
